

Application for Membership: Corporate Member

Building Designers Association Victoria

Corporate membership is available to businesses who are not running a design practice, but who have an association or alliance with the building design profession, such as manufacturers and suppliers of goods and services, consultants to the industry (eg, builders, building surveyors, engineers, planning professionals, energy raters, and so on), TAFE Institutes, etc.

Benefits of Corporate Membership include:

- attendance at BDAV membership activities at Members' rates – these events provide excellent networking opportunities, enabling Corporate Members to develop relationships with BDAV Members;
- one free listing in the Corporate Member section of the BDAV website, including link to the Corporate Member's website;
- those Corporate Members who are consultants are also eligible for one free entry in the 'Find a Consultant' section of the BDAV website;
- ability to avail themselves of the reduced advertising rates offered to Corporate

Members who wish to advertise in BDAV News, or at this website;

- ability to avail themselves of the reduced sponsorship rates offered to Corporate Members who wish to promote their products and services to the BDAV's membership by exhibiting at BDAV events;
- limited access to specific items contained in the Member Only section of the BDAV website,
- ability to display the BDAV Corporate Member logo on their business stationery and at their website.

It should be noted that Corporate Members are not entitled to voting rights of the Association.

The membership process is quite straightforward: please complete the application form on the accompanying page, and return it to the BDAV, together with the payment, as indicated. Upon acceptance to membership, your membership will be confirmed in writing.

If you have any queries, please do not hesitate to contact the BDAV.

About the BDAV

The Building Designers Association of Victoria is a not-for-profit organisation representing more than 1,000 building design professionals, including building designers, draftspersons, interior designers, and services designers.

Established in 1983, the BDAV is managed by a committee of volunteers elected from amongst the membership, whose objective is to advance the profession of building design, by offering cost-effective, quality, membership services and benefits to meet the needs of this important sector of the building industry.

The BDAV is highly regarded by Government and industry bodies. The Association is regularly invited to represent the building design profession on key, influential committees, boards and forums. A BDAV Member represents all registered draftspersons on the Building Practitioners Board.

The BDAV promotes its members for their professional services, their experience and expertise; their practical, individual designs; their knowledge of regulations; and their realistic fees.

The BDAV regularly provides referrals of building designers who are members of the Association to potential clients seeking a designer to design their new home or renovation or other project.

The BDAV is an industry leader in Continuing Professional Development, and has won industry awards for its CPD delivery. The BDAV CPD Program provides opportunities for BDAV members to upskill their knowledge on issues of relevance to design professionals.
